

Friday, 25th September 2020

Mr. David Turvey
Managing Director
Kogi Iron Limited
10 George Street,
Stepney, SA 5069,
Australia.

Dear Sir,

LETTER OF APPRECIATION
26TH NIGERIAN ECONOMIC SUMMIT (NES#26)
THE “NEW NORMAL” – OPPORTUNITIES FOR THE NIGERIAN MINING INDUSTRY

We write to convey our sincere appreciation for your role as a Panellist at the 26th Nigerian Economic Summit Pre-Summit Webinar themed “The “New Normal”– Opportunities for the Nigerian Mining Industry”.

We are particularly grateful for the personal sacrifice you made to honour our invitation as a panellist. Your knowledge and wealth of experience ensured the sustained engagement of the audience and kept up the momentum as the session proceeded.

We therefore hope that our relationship will be sustained to shape strategic partnerships, chart a path to recovery, build resilience for households, businesses and sectors of the economy, and place Nigeria in a strong position within the changing world order.

The outcomes and recommendations of the webinar will be included in the NES#26 Summit Report called the “Green Book”, which will also be used as an engagement tool to continue discussions on building “Opportunities for the Nigerian Mining Industry” and followed up by the NESG’s Manufacturing and Mining Policy Commission. For further engagement and reference, click here to watch the video of the webinar.

We appreciate your efforts in making this Webinar a success and look forward to more fruitful collaborations in promoting and championing the reform of the Nigerian economy into a modern, globally competitive one.

Please be reminded that the 26th Nigerian Economic Summit (NES#26) is scheduled to hold from October 26 – 27, 2020. Kindly click here to register for the NES#26 if you have not registered. Details about participating at the Summit will be provided subsequently. For further enquiries, please contact us at summit@nesgroup.org or visit our website (nesgroup.org). we will be happy to engage.

Please accept the assurances of our highest regard.

Yours faithfully,

Laoye Jaiyeola
Chief Executive Officer